Choose Your Process Wisely

Collaborative Divorce Provides Couples with a Better Way to Divorce.

Collaborative Divorce is a cost-effective, problem-solving approach that can minimize the impact of conflict on you and your children. You will be supported by professionals with the right expertise to guide and inform you along the way. The results are legally binding agreements that resolve the issues facing your family. With the information and guidance you need, you are empowered to make the sound, long-lasting decisions that will impact you and your family for years to come. The Collaborative process preserves your privacy and your dignity while giving you the best possible chance at resolving your disputes respectfully.

Attend a Divorce Options™ Workshop!

Receive Up-to-Date, Unbiased Information About:

- Spousal support (alimony) and child support
- Separate and community property
- Tax consequences of divorce
- Legal and physical custody
- Impact of separation/divorce on children

Learn the Advantages and Disadvantages of:

- Self-representation (“Do-it-yourself”)
- Mediation
- Collaborative Divorce
- Litigation (“Traditional Representation”).

Divorce Options workshops are open to California individuals and couples, whether married, domestic partners or cohabiting; same or opposite gender; with or without children.

The low cost public education workshops are presented by experienced professionals who have guided other people through divorce – lawyers, financial specialists and divorce coaches.

The workshops are held monthly in the greater Sacramento area and throughout California.

Visit SacramentoCollaborativeDivorce.com and click on Workshops to register for a local workshop.

Visit DivorceOptionsInfo.org for a listing of workshops offered statewide.

A community service sponsored by Collaborative Practice California (CP Cal).

Membership

in the Sacramento Collaborative Divorce Group is limited to:

Independent Attorneys,
Financial Specialists,
Divorce Coaches, and Child Specialists

with substantial experience in family law
as well as specific training in collaborative negotiation and mediation.

All members are in good standing with their respective professional societies.

All members belong to the
International Academy of Collaborative Professionals.
